

Florescens

Florescens bottles the nature and wealth of our unique land.

It's made for sharing and enjoying with others. It's a joyful wine that's both delicious and rich. Taste authenticity.

LAND

We've made this wine from mainly old Grenache vines. They are grown in strips halfway up the estate at an altitude of 320m. They enjoy excellent sun exposure and are 40 years old on average.

BLEND

Grenache, Syrah & Carignan

WINE MAKING AND AGING

We make this wine in a tank in its entirety following careful plot selection. The wine making process is natural and traditional.

AGING

50% aged in small concrete vats and 50% in demi-muid Burgundy barrels with 2 wines. The wine is in control of how long it ages for but the average is 15 months.

TASTING

The feminine nature of this ruby red wine is seductive. It's smooth, open, direct and relaxed. This wine has a good concentration, a full body and is wonderfully rich. It's among the most enjoyable and magical with peppery notes of cherry and the heath. It has a smooth and easy finish with silky and velvety tannins.
